

k'íwit - W npatak m k tkwalá

with vocabulary to accompany the game “go fish”

S nwit k'íwitay

language for the game

Mish mash wa _____?

Do you have a _____?

Ii, wash nash _____.

Yes, I have a _____.

Pá(wii)nim.

(Please) give it to me.

Chaw, chawnash wa _____.

No, I don't have a _____.

W npatak tkwalá!

Go fish!

Shimín áwa _____?
____?

Who has a _____-

Tsáxtsam*Cards*

áswan

Jack (boy)

áyat

Queen (woman)

myáwax

King (chief)

silp'ú

Ace

chakyáy

Joker

Wats'úlakatak!Go fish!

Aw ápts'aak.

Now deal.

Aw nash pts'áksha

Now I'm dealing.

Shiminch'ak'a áwa?

Whose turn is it?

Zeke iwá shapni á.

Zeke is the asker.

Cassy iwá wiinp á.

Cassy is the answerer.

Shayleen, wash mash m taat?

Shayleen, do you have a three?

Chaw nash wámtat.

I don't have a three.

Chaw nash wa píniipt.

I don't have a four.

Áwimpk naxsh tsáxtsam.

Take one card.

Áwimpk atáchiishknik.

Take from the ocean.

Ii, wash nash ptáxninsh.

Yes, I have a six.

Pánim.

Give it to me.

Wash nash pawala ts'á páxaat.

I have a pair of fives.

Talx nash wa.

*I'm empty. (can mean 'I'm out of cards')*Tsaxtsami ánmi kák m winner.The player with the most cards is the tsáxtsam iwá iish á.

Wash nash iish á!

I am the winner!

Puut á tash wa.

We are the losers.(note: elders merge the wa and three when talking)

