

Waníkt:

Exercise naxsh: Circle the clitics in the sentences below and átamashwikt (translate) sentences níipt, mítaat, ku ptáxninsh. Get to know the new words used here well – they are very useful for daily language use!

1. Mishnam át 'ixsha lakamín?

Do you like to eat (want) lakamiin?

2. Ii, át 'ixshaash lakamín!

Translate: _____

3. Chaw nash át 'ixsha lakamín.

Translate: _____

4. Áwna tkwátasha tkwatatpamáyaw.

Let's eat at the restaurant. (A more literal translation: now we all are eating at the place for food.)

5. Awnash chiwátsha.

Now, I am full.

6. _____

I am not full.

Exercise níipt: Write the following sentences in Ichishkiin:

1. Are you all hungry?

2. Yes, we all (we but not you) are hungry.

3. We (but not you) forgot lunch at home this morning.

4. No, I am not hungry.

5. We all are full.

6. We all don't want lakamín.